CREMATION & THE CHURCH

On October 25, 2016, the Vatican Congregation for the Doctrine of the Faith published a new instruction on the burial of the dead and on the conservation of the ashes in cases of cremation. The instruction reiterated the long held view that the Church is not opposed to the practice of cremation, though it continues to recommend that the bodies of the deceased be buried in cemeteries or other sacred places. However, the new document insists that ashes should not be kept in private homes and that the scattering of ashes in the air, on land, or at sea is not permitted. The instruction also insisted that cremains may not be divided among various family members, nor may they be preserved in mementos, pieces of jewelry, or other objects. Please contact Father Albert in the Parish Office with any questions. Brochures about the Rite of Christian Funerals are available at the Church entrances.

The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults is the process by which people become members of the Roman Catholic Church. Be a good agent of welcome and evangelization! If you or someone you know is interested in inquiring about becoming a member of the Roman Catholic Church, contact Cathy Smith in the Parish Office.

ADULT CONFIRMATION

Are you an adult who has been Baptized and received Eucharist, but has not celebrated the sacrament of Confirmation? The adult Confirmation process is an opportunity to complete the Sacraments of Initiation. MARRIAGE IN THE CHURCH

Did you know that all Catholics are required to be married in the Church as a condition of the validity of their marriage?

Any Catholic married in a civil ceremony (JP) or in any religious ceremony other than a Catholic one (unless specifically excepted by the Bishop) is not living out the Sacrament of Marriage in its fullness according to the teaching of the Church. Contact Father Albert in the Parish Office for more information and assistance – there are ways in which your situation might be resolved!

St. Luke the Evangelist is now on Facebook! Go to www.facebook.com/stlukenh.org/ or St. Luke the Evangelist Parish – Newton/Plaistow and give us a Like! Please invite fellow parishioners & friends to do the same.

ADORATION

We are truly blessed to have times for Adoration of Our Lord in our Parish. This time of prayer and intercession is not only a source of great grace for the individual, but it is a great source of grace for us as a parish family, as well.

We have many who have made the commitment to spend an hour each week with our Eucharistic Lord, but we need more people so there will be at least two people at each hour. We are also looking for people who would be able to substitute.

Newton – Thursday
8:30 AM – 8:30 PM

If you can commit to one hour a week in Adoration of our Lord, or if you can be a substitute, please contact Cathy Smith at 603-382-8324, ext. 305 or email her at csmith@stluketheevangelist.net.

The Church in Plaistow is open all day on Wednesdays for people to stop by and pray before the presence of Jesus in the tabernacle.

The Gospel at Home

This Sunday's Gospel: Luke 24:35-48

In this Sunday's Gospel, Jesus appears to the disciples and invites them to touch him to see that he is really alive. He calls the disciples to be his witnesses. They have Good News to tell—that love is stronger than death, victory can come from suffering, and life can come from death.

Exploring the Gospel Message

Seeds (Preschool): Your child learned that after rising from the dead, Jesus came to visit his friends. He gave them a message of love and peace. Ask your child to share with you the booklet he or she made in class. Talk about sad feelings and happy feelings. Remember that even the simplest of these chats helps your child grow in faith.

Promise (Grades K-1): Your child learned that Jesus visited his friends on that first Easter and gave them the gift of his peace. The class also learned about the importance of being peacemakers. Discuss how your family members can be signs of peace to one another and the importance of offering the Sign of Peace to others at Mass. There may be a place to prominently display your child's peace banner made during the lesson.

Good News (Grades 2-3): This Sunday's Gospel tells us that Jesus is alive and is still with us. Your child also learned how stories help us remember those we love even if they have died. Ask your child to tell the story titled, "Remembering Buddy." Share the ways your family shows faith that Jesus lives in you and that you will live forever with him. Talk with your child about what the Real Presence is. The class studied the Real Presence as a Catholic Faith Word this week.

Venture (Grades 4-6): This Sunday's Gospel recounts how two disciples recognized Jesus in the breaking of the bread. Your youngster explored how we celebrate Jesus in the breaking of the bread at Mass. The children also learned how missionaries carried the Good News of the Gospel throughout the world. Discuss how important the celebration of Mass is for your family. Share ways in which your family can spread the message of the Risen Jesus to everyone you meet.

Visions (Grades 7-9): Part of this week's lesson showed how Saint Paul journeyed to spread the Good News from Jerusalem to Rome. The class also learned that during the Eucharistic Prayer at Mass, we remember the events of salvation, we celebrate a sacred meal, we ask for God's help, and we express our hope for the future. Talk together about your family's hopes and dreams for the future. Discuss why being faithful members of the Church should be an important part of that future.

Pray Together

Eastern Christians have a special way of greeting one another during Easter. One person says, "Christ is risen!" and the other answers, "Truly, he is risen!" or "Indeed, he is risen!" Use this greeting with members of the family throughout this week.

Why don't you think about it too?

Sharing Our Wounds

By Fr. Mark Haydu, LC

The glorified Jesus is not easy for the apostles to recognize. There is a deep truth here. The Twelve are startled and terrified to see Jesus again. In fact, they even think they are seeing a ghost. Their fear and lack of faith makes it impossible to see him for who he is—their resurrected Savior. Before they can truly see, they need to first accept him and believe.

And how does Jesus prove his identity to them? He shows them his wounds, the signs of his suffering and crucifixion. We often want to hide our wounds. We are ashamed of them and afraid of how others will react if they really knew. But Jesus, unashamed, shows his wounds and uses them as signs of who he is.

There is a message for us here. We need to allow our brokenness to find fullness and resurrection in Christ. It is at that point that the love of God is perfected in us. First, we need to acknowledge our wounds and not bury or hide them. Then we need to admit our need for healing. Finally, through prayer, confession, and help from those who love us, we allow Jesus' redemptive love to wash over our wounds and give us renewal, rebirth, and healing.

As a result, like Jesus, we will no longer be ashamed of our wounds, but rather we will share them as evidence of the power of Jesus Christ. +

Sunday Readings

Acts 3:13-15, 17-19

The author of life you put to death, but God raised him from death; of this we are witnesses.

1 John 2:1-5a

Whoever says, "I know him," but does not obey his commandments, is a liar."

Luke 24:35-48

[Jesus] asked them, "Have you anything here to eat?" They gave him a piece of baked fish; he took it and ate it in front of them.

A Word from Pope Francis

We know that slander always kills. This "diabolical cancer" that arises from the desire to destroy the reputation of a person also attacks the ecclesial body and seriously damages it when, as a result of malicious interests or to cover up one's own inadequacies, people unite to denigrate someone.

REFLECTION QUESTIONS

ONE QUESTION FOR REFLECTION

- Is there an area of my heart and life where I need Jesus' healing?
- Am I confident in God's power to raise me up out of my weakness?

When Is It Time to Forgive?

By Fr. Bruce Lewandowski, CSSR

The first time it happened, I was speechless. A mother had come to the rectory. She didn't like the answer she'd gotten from the parish school's principal about the importance of timely tuition payments. When I gave her the same answer, she screamed at me. She called me a pedophile.

I had never been called that before. It's happened a few times since, once by a homeless man and another time by a stranger—and the shock hasn't worn off. Each time, my reaction has been the same. I think of the victims of sexual abuse. I think of the priests accused, the innocent and the guilty. I think of the Church. And I think about forgiveness.

The book of Genesis says that after Cain killed his brother Abel, God put an indelible mark on him to prevent him from being killed. It seems God either wanted Cain to suffer a long life of shame for his sin or have plenty of time to repent. Maybe it was both. The point is that God gave time to Cain for either to happen.

Indelible marks have been left on the Church for what it did and didn't do to protect children and young people from predator priests.

Indelible marks of sorts have been left on the Church for what it did and didn't do to guard and protect children and young people from predator priests. Much has happened since the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops issued its Charter for the Protection of Children & Young People in 2002. Look at the websites of dioceses and religious orders across the country. The mark says Virtus or Praesidium. Departments for child and youth protection are everywhere, even in the Vatican. Standards and training sessions have been developed to teach ethical ministry practices with minors. Notices posted in church vestibules say in bold, black letters, "Report Sexual Abuse." Criminal and civil suits abound. So do shame and repentance—as they should.

Does time heal all wounds? Maybe it's too soon to ask. There's something missing amidst the shame, repentance, diocesan departments, and survivor networks. It's the same thing I'll bet Cain longed for: forgiveness. How long did Cain live in unforgiveness? Did he ever run home to Adam and Eve and tearfully beg their forgiveness? Did God forgive him? The Book of Genesis says only that time was given to Cain. Maybe that was the mark—that Cain couldn't be forgiven. But I like to think that, in time, he was.

Can the Church, that through the centuries forgave millions, ever be forgiven for its role in the sexual abuse of minors? What will it take? For how long will the clerical collar be a mark of shame and repentance? I remember a time not long ago when it was the mark of forgiveness.

There's still time for repentance and shame—and forgiveness. +

PRAYER

Risen Lord, your resurrection revealed to the world the hope and promise of new life. Help me to be a faithful, hopeful, loving presence to all people.
