WELCOME IN CHRIST!

Saint Luke the Evangelist Parish invites all to a deeper love of Jesus and to a fullness of communion with the Church. The rites of Christian Initiation for Adults (RCIA) is a process where adults and older children are welcomed into the Catholic Church. Some have never been Baptized, others never received Eucharist or Confirmation and others arrive at our door after a long faith journey.

Do you know someone who is thinking about becoming part of our Catholic community? Are you the non-Catholic spouse of a parishioner who is wondering about full communion with the Church? Are you an adult Catholic who for whatever reason, "missed" one or more of the sacraments of initiation while growing up? Do you have children over 7 years of age who were never Baptized, or older children who "missed" sacraments?

The Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults (and its adapted form for children) welcomes all kinds of people into the Catholic family. The RCIA is for any adult who is: unbaptized and recognizes a need for spirituality in their life, or Baptized and raised in another Christian tradition but interested in learning about the Catholic faith, or Baptized in the Catholic faith, but never received any formal religious training.

Children of all ages are welcome and participate in age appropriate meetings for their RCIA experience.

Contact Father Albert or Cathy Smith in the Parish Office at 603.382.8324 for more information.

CONFIRMATION

MAYBE IT'S TIME

To re-connect with your Church, to re-new yourself and others through the unique power of the Holy Spirit who guides us in Love and Truth. If you are a baptized Catholic, have received your First Communion, but decided against Confirmation as a teen, maybe NOW IS THE TIME for you to re-consider Confirmation.

Maybe you weren't ready. Maybe you didn't want to be pressured into it by your family and peers. Maybe you weren't sure that Catholic is who you wanted to be. Maybe you were just beginning to doubt that what you were taught as a child -- about God, Jesus, the Holy Spirit, the Virgin Mary, the Eucharist, the saints, eternal life -- was all too good to be true. Maybe you were overwhelmed with school commitments, personal disappointments, and feeling that God really didn't care if you were Catholic anyway.

God does care about you. For some reason, God chose you to be born into a family that would bring you to the Catholic Church for Baptism. So maybe -- just maybe -- now...it's time....to make your own choice. Confirmation.

If you want to talk about the Sacrament of Confirmation, contact the Parish Office. With a little time and reflection, practicing Catholic can be prepared to celebrate the gift of the Spirit in their lives.

Maybe it's your time. Call 603 382 8324.

ADORERS NEEDED AT ADORATION

We are truly blessed to have times for Adoration of Our Lord in our Parish. This time of prayer and intercession is not only a source of great grace for the individual but is a great source of grace for us as a parish family. We have many who have made the commitment to spend an hour each week with our Eucharistic Lord. Adoration takes place each Thursday in Newton from 8:30 AM to 8:30 PM. We also need people at all times so we can have 2 people at each hour. If you can commit to one hour a week in Adoration of our Lord, or if you can be a substitute, please contact Cathy Smith at 603-382-8324, ext. 305, or email her at csmith@stluketheevangelist.net.

The Church in Plaistow is open all day on Wednesdays for people to stop by and pray before the presence of Jesus in the tabernacle.

Join us for five weeks of Threshold Bible Study from Twenty-Third Publications.

Threshold Bible Study is a dynamic, informative, and inspiring way to enter into a deeper relationship with God through Scripture.

Our Summer Bible share groups will be exploring the theme: Questions Jesus Asks. Twenty-Third Publications states: "One of the most striking characteristics of Jesus' ministry is the way he continually asks questions of those he encounters. While Jesus' questions do not demand quick and easy answers, they evoke new understandings, help listeners see different perspectives, and ultimately change lives."

If you are interested in joining a group either on Wednesday evenings at 7 p.m., beginning July 10, or Thursday afternoons at 1:30 p.m., beginning July 11, please cut the form at the bottom and complete. Completed forms should be returned either in the collection basket or the parish office no later than Monday, June 24. Any questions, contact Cathy Smith at (603) 382-8324 or csmith@stluketheevangelist.net

Bringing Home the Word

A Real Force of Nature

Sr. Dianne Bergant, CSA

One of the forces of nature that we have been unable to control is unruly water. We are actually helpless when caught between torrents of rain from above and surging water from below. It is no wonder the ancestors of ancient Israel who lived between the Tigris and Euphrates rivers characterized cosmic evil as tumultuous water that only the great creator-God could control. This is the scene described in the reading from Job. This water is not destroyed; it is only harnessed. We will have to wait for the end of time for such water to be abolished. (“The sea was no more” Revelation 21:1.) This divine power over water is praised in the psalm response as well.

Belief in God’s absolute power over chaotic water and cosmic evil lies behind the story of Jesus calming the sea. This story doesn’t simply recount a display of Jesus’ extraordinary command over the forces of nature. While certainly that, it is actually much more. It stands to reason that, if only the great creator-God can exercise control over this fearsome watery threat, and if Jesus can effortlessly exercise control over such water, then Jesus is somehow God. In today’s Gospel, the audacious disciples, who initially were frightened by the ferocity of the squall, were astounded by Jesus’ authority over the storm. They declared, “Who then is this whom even wind and sea obey?” (Mark 4:41). It is clear from this story that Jesus is the real force of nature.

Sunday Readings

Job 38:1, 8–11

Who shut within doors the sea,
when it burst forth from the womb?

2 Corinthians 5:14–17

So whoever is in Christ is a new creation: the old things have passed away.

Mark 4:35–41

[Jesus] woke up, rebuked the wind, and said to the sea, “Quiet! Be still!”
The wind ceased and there was great calm.

If only the great creator-God can exercise control over this fearsome watery threat, and if Jesus can effortlessly exercise control over such water, then Jesus is somehow God.

A Word from Pope Francis

Jesus, begged by the disciples, calms the wind and waves.
And he asks them a question,
a question which also pertains to us: “Why are you afraid?
Have you no faith?” (v. 40).
The disciples were gripped with fear, because they were focused on the waves more than on looking at Jesus.

REFLECTION QUESTIONS

- Have you ever had a “close call” when the worst did not happen?
- Did you remember to thank God?

Turn Off Your Phone and Listen!

Fr. Bob Pagliari, CSsR

I asked the forty college students I'm teaching this semester to observe a public conversation between two other students on campus and to report back about how effective or ineffective their listening skills were. Not surprisingly, most examples of poor communication involved one person punching text messages into a mobile phone while pretending to listen to what the other person was saying.

Is anyone surprised by this? Remember when our parents told us to be mindful of others? Mind full! What is our mind filled with these days when we're talking with someone else? Effective listening means paying attention to the other person. Only when our mind is full of nothing else but what the other person is saying, are we truly being mindful of them and giving them our undivided attention.

Like all texting-while-driving temptations (our phone should be locked away in the glove compartment before we even put our car in gear!), when it comes to listening to others, our multitasking endeavors and phone distractions should also be turned off and stowed away so we can give our undivided attention and our full mind to others. No exceptions. Anything less is disrespect!

I can distinctly remember an incident, before the advent of message machines, when I was in my superior's office and his landline phone began to ring. I asked if he was going to answer it. He replied that whoever it was could call back because it was far more important that he pay attention to me. That was mindful listening. And I've never forgotten how respected he made me feel.

Prayer is defined as talking with God, which includes listening. How often do we give our undistracted, un-multi-tasked, mindful attention to God when we pray? †

Wisdom from Catholic UPDATE

From "The Science of Religion: Presence and Power in the Sacraments"
by Robert E. Justus, MD

Many studies have indicated an association between attending religious services and overall happiness/life satisfaction. Also, longitudinal evidence suggests that those attending religious services are subsequently more generous and more engaged in civic activities. Experimental evidence shows that prayer increases forgiveness, gratitude, and trust. Religious service attendance is also linked to decreases in the likelihood of divorce and increases in the probability of lasting marriages, the building of lasting friendships, and the securing of social support. Interestingly, the factor that is most predictive of health benefits is attending religious services, not private spiritual practices, or self-assessed spirituality/religiosity. Specifically, it is the communal aspect of religious practice that is associated with better health outcomes. †

*Creator God, when life is overwhelming,
teach us to pause
and breathe, and then to look for your son Jesus in the midst of the storm. We pray in his name. Amen.*
