NEW HAMPSHIRE CATHOLIC APPEAL

Thanks to all who have made their gift to the New Hampshire Catholic Appeal: Future of our Faith II this weekend. Your gift will enable the Catholic Church in New Hampshire to meet the increasing needs of parishes, Catholic schools, retired clergy, seminarians, and much more.

Extra gift envelopes and brochures about the Catholic Appeal are available in the pews and at the church entrances. We need the support of all our parish families to reach our parish goal. Thank you for your support of these important needs and ministries of the Church.

FOR OUR RECORDS

We need your help to keep our records current. If there are any births, deaths, marriages, moves, or address changes in your family, please notify the Parish Office at 603-382-8324 or by email at jtremblay@stluketheevangelist.net. If you're new to our parish, registration forms are available at the entrances of both churches.

SAFETY AND SECURITY

Our Parish properties are active places, where traffic and parked vehicles are a constant presence in the ebb and flow of a busy week. It is important to remember that because of the activity on both campuses, it is easy for someone looking for a quick deed to find a vehicle. Please be sure to lock and secure your vehicle when you are parked on either campus. If possible, secure valuables out of sight or make sure valuables in an open bed truck are secure. We have requested extra police presence in our lots during Masses, but patrols can only do so much. Each of us are responsible for making sure, as best we as are able, that our vehicles are safe and secure. Anyone seeing something or someone unusual in the lots is welcome to contact the local police.

WELCOME IN CHRIST!

Saint Luke the Evangelist Parish invites all to a deeper love of Jesus and to a fullness of communion with the Church. The ORDER OF CHRISTIAN INITIATION FOR ADULTS (RCIA) is a process where adults and older children are welcomed into the Catholic Church. Some have never been Baptized, others never received Eucharist or Confirmation and others arrive at our door after a long faith journey.

Do you know someone who is thinking about becoming part of our Catholic community? Are you the non-Catholic spouse of a parishioner who is wondering about full communion with the Church? Are you an adult Catholic who for whatever reason, "missed" one or more of the sacraments of initiation while growing up? Do you have children over 7 years of age who were never Baptized, or older children who "missed" sacraments?

The Order of Christian Initiation for Adults (and its adapted form for children) welcomes all kinds of people into the Catholic family. The OCIA is for any adult who is: unbaptized and recognizes a need for spirituality in their life, or Baptized and raised in another Christian tradition but interested in learning about the Catholic faith, or Baptized in the Catholic faith, but never received any formal religious training.

Children of all ages are welcome and participate in age appropriate meetings for their OCIA experience.

Contact Father Albert or Cathy Smith in the Parish Office at 603.382.8324 for more information.

ADORERS NEEDED AT ADORATION

We are truly blessed to have times for Adoration of Our Lord in our Parish. This time of prayer and intercession is not only a source of great grace for the individual but is a great source of grace for us as a parish family. We have many who have made the commitment to spend an hour each week with our Eucharistic Lord. Adoration takes place each Thursday in Newton from 8:30 AM to 8:30 PM. We also need people at all times so we can have 2 people at each hour. If you can commit to one hour a week in Adoration of our Lord, or if you can be a substitute, please contact Cathy Smith at 603-382-8324, ext. 305, or email her at csmith@stluketheevangelist.net.

The Church in Plaistow is open all day on Wednesdays for people to stop by and pray before the presence of Jesus in the tabernacle.

VOTING AS A EUCHARISTIC PEOPLE

The Eucharist and the Transformation of Politics

What does the Eucharist have to do with politics?

How can a eucharistic culture transform modern political culture?

You are invited to hear Mr. Robert Dunn, the Director of Public Policy for the Diocese of Manchester, discuss how the Eucharist and Catholic Social Teaching can form the basis for a culture that replaces hyper-individualism and hyper-partisanship with selfless service and communion.

Mr. Dunn will also introduce the Diocese of Manchester’s new voting resource:

Five Principles for Voting as People of the Eucharist.

Keep this date open: Saturday, October 26, 2024-8:30 am -10:00 am

The Knights of Columbus St. Jude Council #6617 invites you to the following:

October “Respect Life Month” Rosary Prayer Service

Continental Breakfast & speaker - lower church hall - St. Luke the Evangelist Plaistow campus

Featuring guest speaker
Mr. Robert Dunn

Mr. Dunn is a graduate of the College of the Holy Cross and Georgetown University Law Center and is recognized as a Mathis Liturgical Leader by the University of Notre Dame’s McGrath Institute for Church Life. Before taking on his current position with the Diocese of Manchester, Bob was the director of government relations for Devine Millimet Law Firm, and he also served as an Assistant Attorney General in the NH Department of Justice and as the Assistant Commissioner of the NH Department of Safety.

Catholic social teaching provides a framework for addressing public policy through several key themes:

1. Life and Dignity of the Human Person: This theme emphasizes the sacredness of human life and the inherent dignity of every person. It calls for the protection of life at all stages and opposes practices like abortion, euthanasia, and unjust warfare.
2. Call to Family, Community, and Participation: The Church stresses the importance of family as a foundational social unit and encourages active participation in society to promote the common good.
3. Rights and Responsibilities: This principle highlights the need to protect human rights while also fulfilling responsibilities to others and society.
4. Option for the Poor and Vulnerable: The Church advocates prioritizing the needs of the poor and vulnerable, ensuring they are central to public policy decisions.
5. The Dignity of Work and Rights of Workers: Work is seen as a form of participation in God's creation, necessitating fair wages, safe conditions, and respect for workers' rights.
6. Solidarity: Emphasizing global unity, this theme calls for justice and peace across all communities.
7. Care for God's Creation: Environmental stewardship is viewed as a moral obligation to protect the planet for future generations.

These themes guide Catholics in shaping just policies that reflect moral principles rather than narrow interests.

Bringing Home the Word

Twenty-ninth Sunday in Ordinary Time (B)
October 20, 2024

Can You Drink the Cup?

Sr. Dianne Bergant, CSA

That is the question in today’s Gospel that Jesus posed after James and John, two of his closest followers, asked for places of honor. They wanted to be recognized for their loyalty. Don’t we all? Jesus asks them: “Can you drink the cup?” (Mark 10:38). Can you pay the price? And they both say: “We can” (10:39). Such confidence and self-assurance!

This is a Sunday that focuses on hardship—not the hardship that comes from the burdens of life itself, such as economic distress, racial and gender bias, or the loss of loved ones. Jesus was certainly concerned about these. However, today’s readings have a specific focus. He asks: “Can you drink the cup that I drink?” Can you face and endure what I must? Can you follow me to suffering?

Isaiah refers to the servant of the Lord, that mysterious individual who suffers at the hands of others precisely because of his loyalty. However, his suffering is not in vain: “Because of his anguish... my servant, the just one, shall justify the many...” (53:11). The spirit of this servant lives on in many stories about Jesus. It certainly does this Sunday. Like the servant, Jesus will suffer for the sake of others. How ready are James and John, you and I, for such a role? Jesus then turns the values of society upside down. You want to be great? Then you have to serve others. You want to be first? Then, for the sake of others, you have to put yourself last. To follow Jesus means to follow him even through suffering. “Can you drink the cup?” †

Sunday Readings

Isaiah 53:10–11

My servant, the just one, shall justify the many, / their iniquity he shall bear.

Hebrews 4:14–16

We do not have a high priest who is unable to sympathize with our weaknesses, but one who has similarly been tested in every way....

Mark 10:35–45 or 10:42–45

[Jesus said,] “For the Son of Man did not come to be served but to serve and to give his life as a ransom for many.”

Like the servant,
Jesus will suffer for the sake of others. How ready are James and John,
you and I, for such a role?

A Word from Pope Francis

How many times, we Christians, who should be servants, try to climb up, to get ahead. We should thus always evaluate our heart’s real intentions, asking ourselves: “Why am I carrying out this work, this responsibility? To offer service or rather to be recognized, [to be] praised, and to receive compliments?”

Angelus, Rome, October 17, 2021

REFLECTION QUESTIONS

QUESTIONS FOR REFLECTION

- What makes you feel unappreciated?
- How can you ask Jesus to help you turn that feeling into prayer?

Everyday Morality

Bishop Bruce Lewandowski, CSsR

In high school we had to take a class called “Social Problems.” The teacher would present a dilemma, usually some kind of dramatic life-and-death situation, and we had to think our way toward an ethical, socially-responsible resolution. The idea was to teach moral values and moral behavior. A weakness in the course was that we were left with the idea that moral reasoning was required in great and exceptional moments but not necessarily in the ordinary decisions of daily living. Simple activities like eating and shopping also have implications for moral or ethical living.

A walk through your favorite supermarket or clothing outlet can be revealing. Some clothes are tagged “sweat-free,” meaning that the item’s production complies with fair and ethical labor practices. No one was exploited in making them.

Other clothes are tagged to advertise a cause. For example, if you buy a certain T-shirt, a percentage of what you pay goes to support a particular foundation.

Shopping with a conscience, buying for a cause, and eating ethically are becoming more popular. More and more we are concerned about where the things we buy come from, how they’re made, who made them, and the effect our purchase and its use will have on our planet.

The Church has a long tradition of the examination of conscience. One examines past actions with an eye to the future. What is done well should be celebrated and repeated, and what is sinful should be lamented and avoided. This kind of reflection helps to form our conscience.

There is an “examination of conscience” for diners and shoppers. Read labels, tags, and the fine print. Each can reveal a host of social problems and at the same time invite us to reflect on our participation in them. Who picked your tomatoes? Who imported your denim? Conscience is not only personal, but also social. And it’s in the marketplace. Shop and eat your way to a better world and a better you. †

Wisdom from Catholic UPDATE

From “Voting with a Catholic Heart” by Stephen P. White

Our responsibility as citizens is fulfilled when we act in defense of the human person and for the sake of the common good. Our responsibility as citizens finds expression in treating each member and part of society with justice—given to each what is due to them. Our responsibility as citizens is fulfilled when these actions are animated by a love that is ordered toward the true common good. If we take this mission seriously, if we live this mission faithfully, if we listen to our shepherds attentively, then we will have what it takes to vote with a Catholic heart. †

God of all people, give us the grace to remember the needs of others as we live our daily lives, as we drive, work, buy, cook, eat, and rest.
