EARLY BULLETIN DEADLINES

Our bulletin company will be doing maintenance on their copiers and they have asked us to send our bulletins early. The deadlines for submissions for bulletin announcements are:

- Monday, April 28 for the May 18 bulletin

- Monday, May 19 for the June 1 bulletin

SAFETY AND SECURITY

Our Parish properties are active places, where traffic and parked vehicles are a constant presence in the ebb and flow of a busy week. It is important to remember that because of the activity on both campuses, it is easy for someone looking for a quick deed to find a vehicle. Please be sure to lock and secure your vehicle when you are parked on either campus. If possible, secure valuables out of sight or make sure valuables in an open bed truck are secure. We have requested extra police presence in our lots during Masses, but patrols can only do so much. Each of us are responsible for making sure, as best we as are able, that our vehicles are safe and secure. Anyone seeing something or someone unusual in the lots is welcome to contact the local police.

Take My Word for It

Sr. Dianne Bergant, CSA

This is easier said than done. Growing up, we insisted on doing things ourselves, learning from our own experiences, developing a sense of our own abilities. We came to know that there are times when we should—in fact, we must—take someone else’s word for something. If we refuse to do this, we might be called a “doubting Thomas.” Is that fair to us? Is it fair to Thomas?

As today’s gospel passage reports, gathered in a room, several disciples of Jesus experienced him truly among them. Thomas was absent. When the others told Thomas what had occurred, he refused to take their word for it. To believe, he also would have to experience Jesus. It is unfair to credit them with faith and label him a doubter. After all, their experience probably convinced them, an event Thomas did not enjoy with the other disciples.

The point of this story is not Thomas’ eventual visit by Jesus or his subsequent profession of faith. Rather, it is the source of such a confession. Thomas was unwilling or unable to accept the truth of the resurrection unless he saw Jesus and touched him. Jesus told him, “Blessed are those who have not seen and have believed” (John 20:29). Blessed are you and me, who have come to know Jesus and the truth of his resurrection on the word of others—our parents and teachers, pastoral ministers and friends—those who have come to know him and who witness to this in their lives. †

Thomas was unwilling or unable to accept the truth of the resurrection unless he saw Jesus and touched him.

Sunday Readings

Acts 5:12–16

Many signs and wonders were done among the people at the hands of the apostles.

Revelation 1:9–11a, 12–13, 17–19

Once I was dead, but now I am alive forever and ever. I hold the keys to death and the netherworld.

John 20:19–31

Thomas answered and said to him, “My Lord and my God!” Jesus said to him, “Have you come to believe because you have seen me? Blessed are those who have not seen and have believed.”

A Word from Pope Francis

Let us ask ourselves: do I believe in the power of the resurrection of Jesus...? Do I believe in his victory over sin, fear, and death? Do I let myself be drawn into a relationship with the Lord, with Jesus? And do I let myself be prompted by him to love my brothers and sisters, and to hope every day?

REGINA CAELI, ROME, APRIL 7, 2024

REFLECTION QUESTIONS

QUESTIONS REFLECTION

- How do I share my faith with others and listen when they share?
- How can I be quick to forgive and to seek the forgiveness of others?

Witnessing to God's Mercy

Redemptorist Mass Companion

Today, the Church celebrates the feast of Divine Mercy, inviting us to reflect on the boundless mercy of the Lord. The devotion to Divine Mercy is deeply rooted in the revelations given to Saint Faustina Kowalska, who was told by Jesus that he embodies “Love and Mercy.”

Sister Faustina was instructed by Jesus to paint an image of him with the inscription: “Jesus, I trust in You.” Although she had concerns about the painting’s accuracy, Jesus emphasized that the significance lay not in the image itself but in the message it conveyed. The message is clear: God’s mercy is so profound that he cannot punish even the greatest sinner if they sincerely appeal to his compassion. No soul that seeks his mercy is ever turned away.

Today, the Divine Mercy image and its associated devotions are widespread, embodying the call to trust in Jesus’ merciful love and to practice mercy in our own lives, as highlighted in Luke 6:36: “Be merciful, just as your Father is merciful.” The gospel emphasizes that faith must be accompanied by action.... Our faith should translate into tangible acts of charity. While not everyone needs financial assistance, a kind smile, a compassionate word, or a supportive gesture can make a significant impact. Mother Teresa of Kolkata famously said, “Not all of us can do great things, but we can do small things with great love.” As we celebrate this feast, let us embrace Jesus’ invitation to dwell in his merciful love and extend that mercy to others through our actions and kindness. In doing so, we make the mercy of Christ tangible and impactful in our daily lives. †

Wisdom from Catholic Update

From “We Believe in the Resurrection” by Thomas H. Groome

Jesus’ resurrection was not just wishful thinking on the part of his disciples. To begin with, they clearly were not expecting it; those two disciples on the Emmaus road spent a whole day with him before recognizing who he was. Others, upon his appearance, were “startled and terrified and thought that they were seeing a ghost” (Luke 24:37). If this were a made-up story, they surely would have represented themselves better. Then, the disciples were transformed by their conviction that God had raised him up, many giving their lives in witness to this truth; such commitment is impossible from a conspiracy of fond hopes. The disciples knew that his resurrection was real because Jesus had shown them the wounds in his body—even inviting Thomas to touch them. (See John 20:24–29.)

Catholic Update—a subscription newsletter published eleven times a year—explores Church tradition and teaching on contemporary topics. For more information, call 800-325-9521 or visit Liguori.org.

Lord Jesus, when I find it hard to believe, live in me and show me the way to live until I believe again. Amen! Alleluia!
